From 25 of April 2014 the Crimea will be subject of Russian migration law and will be covered by Russian visa/migration system.

In this date Russian security checkpoints on the roads on the North edge of the peninsula, railways stations Armyansk and Dzhankoy will be changed to official Russian customs points, using Russian migration databases, giving and picking up Russian-Belorussian Migration cards.

Airlines from/to Simferopol International Airport to/from another Russian airports will be domestic (that is free of customs/migration control, without duty-free shops) from 25.04.2014.

On 25.04.2014 the Russian customs/frontier point in the port Kavkaz (East coast of Kerch Strait) will be passed into nothingness.
